Partner

Virginia E. George is a founding partner at Swanson Sweet LLP and concentrates her practice on representing financially distressed individuals and business in bankruptcy, workouts, reorganizations, and receiverships.

She is known for executing strategies that grant her clients their desired outcomes, even in the most complex cases. She has extensive experience in all aspects of business and individual bankruptcy including business and individual chapter 7, 11, Sub-V, and chapter 12. She regularly helps clients avoid bankruptcy through out-of-court workouts.

She has served on the panel of chapter 7 trustees for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin since 1999.

For the period 1998-2025, Martindale-Hubbell awarded Virginia the AV Preeminent® 5.0/5.0 rating, indicating the pinnacle of professional excellence earned through a strenuous Peer Review process across the US and Canada. For the past 9 years, she also achieved the Judicial AV Preeminent® rating, reflecting the confidential opinions of the Bar and Judiciary.

Virginia is awarded The Best Lawyers in America 2024 Edition for Litigation: Bankruptcy and 2025 Edition Best Lawyer in America for Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights/Insolvency and Reorganization and Litigation-Bankruptcy.
